

Recruiting Mission 1: Purpose (BIG WIN)

THRIVE! As a Professional Coach Playbook

"Shared purpose is rocket fuel for BELONGING."
- Coach Dave

Quick Summary:

Clarify Your Purpose!

So you have taken the courageous step to talk with people about their purpose and yours. The BIG WIN is when the other person responds to the experience in a positive way.

Remember: a result is when something happens in the world. In a world where people are CRAVING purpose, you have just done a really important thing!

Quick Outline

1. Purpose and Profound Belonging

1) Purpose and Profound Belonging

So we know that people are craving purpose and yearning for an experience of belonging; especially when they can belong by being FULLY themselves. As Life Coaches the ability to talk about and co-create these experiences is just one of the many things we bring to the Life Party!

So the game here is to practice talking with people about purpose and living into that purpose while staying tuned into that FEELING of profound belonging. Stay alert to the way the conversation feels for you and for the other person.

The dynamic energy between every pair of humans is unique. Sense the energy connection between you and the other person as you talk. This will be great practice for your future recruiting conversations.

The BIG WIN for this game item is when the person you are talking to says or does something to acknowledge that the conversation has given them a "boost of belonging".
