

SuperPowers Mission 2: Model (Game Action)

THRIVE! As a Professional Coach Playbook

Quick Summary:

The Game Action for Super Power Mission 2 is this: when you play your Recruit – Commit – Coach games using your business model, pay VERY close attention to your ability to express your Super Powers AND your resistance to expressing them (AKA FEAR).

1) Play – Discover - Share

So as you are playing this business game there will be times when express – or even discover – a Super Power. It will feel really good! You might even surprise yourself when it happens. NOTICE THIS!!

Another common scenario is that you set out to take action in your game and you meet a lot of inner resistance. It could happen BEFORE you take the action, or it could happen while you are taking the action. Same thing... NOTICE THIS. If you take the time to notice when inner resistance comes up you can then explore it and then find a way to expand your comfort zone. (Hint: use the Inner Freedom Method!)

THE fast track to thriving in the business game – or any game – is to OWN the value of your abilities and grow through your resistance (AKA FEAR) of expressing them.
