

Provocative Conversations – Game Action

Pursuit of Greatness Game

The Game Changer: Profound Belonging

You are in the pursuit of greatness in the Connected Age of Purpose and Play! Every day engage in at least one potentially life changing conversation with someone in your inner circle.

Quick Outline

1. How to use the conversation guides
2. 10 Reasons to Rock the Gamecard Lifestyle!

1) How to use the conversation guides (Super Easy Instructions)

The main point of this game is to engage in NEW – Deeper, more provocative - conversations with the important people in your life. Remember: any conversation can become a life-changing experience.

- 1) Every 3 days for 21 Days a new game element will pop onto your game card with a link for the conversation guide in PDF format. The game is to have each conversation with 3 different people.
- 2) Send the PDF to the person you will be talking to. (or print 2 copies and hand them one)
- 3) Have the conversation. Be yourself. Be curious. Look for common themes. ENJOY!
- 4) On your game card, share what you learned about the other person and about yourself.

In addition to life-changing conversations, look at your teammates game cards and see how they are playing in life. Give them some encouragement by commenting on their game card. If they do something awesome, give them a YIM!

NOTE: if you already did the first Conversation Guide while playing the Coaching Super Powers Section 1 game, then you get to pick 3 more people in your Inner Circle for that conversation!

2) 10 Big Reasons to Rock The Game Card Lifestyle

- 1) You are insanely busy. When you give of your time – time that you don't even have - to contribute to your community, you are a hero. Your community needs heroes. It is as simple and powerful as that.
- 2) Sharing consistently activates a part of your brain that accelerates learning from successes so you get better results much faster. You also avoid repeating mistakes; which is a good thing.
- 3) Sharing about your experiences in writing reveals powerful insights that would otherwise remain hidden. In other words, you CREATE and LEARN while you are writing. For example if you are facing a challenge and you type into your game card: "The perfection of this situation is..." FLASH! Insight.
- 4) Learning from others – by reading their game cards - accelerates your path to mastery because you amplify your own learning experiences.
- 5) Sharing your insights in a way that contributes value to others in the community boosts your experience of your own value; receiving external feedback from others creates a MEGA boost of belonging and self-worth (something we ALL need a lot more of!)
- 6) KNOWING that you are part of a learning community – rather than operating in isolation- boosts your overall feeling of goodwill. Feeling goodwill keeps you operating in the BIG part of your brain where you are creative, while feeling alone keeps you in the smaller/ animal part of your brain where you are reactive. "Isolation is the dream killer" – Barbara Sher
- 7) Having a place to go – your game card - to remember what you have accomplished in the recent past is a significant self-worth boost; When your self-worth is high you take more positive risks which leads to faster learning and better results.
- 8) Having a place to go to be reminded of your own objectives and see a written recap of what you have learned and accomplished recently helps you bounce back from disappointment and course-correct very quickly as well. This minimizes or eliminates time lost due to feeling lost or down about what you are doing; which over time greatly accelerates your path to success.
- 9) Sharing in writing about your game activities at some point every day has the tremendous effect of clearing your mind. This then releases bandwidth being used to "remember" to be used for creativity. AWESOME! It frees up your mind to start the new day with a new game.
- 10) Long term awesomeness! You can come back and review these game cards at any time in the future when you need a boost and to see how far you have traveled on the path to mastery.
