

05 – I Want You On My TEAM – Power Up Pursuit of Greatness Game

In game item #05 you will explore Coaching Super Powers book Chapter 1 The Story: Pages 27-29

- All great collaborations begin with a convergence of dreams
- You want them to say YES because you want them to win!
- You will be making offers to players in the near future.

To POWER UP, share your thoughts about the shared dream within your inner circle. If you can't identify one, then share what you DESIRE the shared DREAM to be. Use your imagination. Also please share your comments, insights or questions about the book content and audio.

The "Story" paints a picture of a recurring conversation that you will have as a coach. One way or another, you will be engaging in conversations like this with potential players and making some sort of offer to coach them when they join your team.

An important element of the story reveals the importance of the shared DREAM. This is a recurring theme in the book and something for you to start wondering about.

I look forward to reading your thoughts about "The Story"
