

Tap Your Inner Genius

This is a 28-Day game for people who know they have great potential and want to bring their projects to life with brilliant ideas and a supportive structure.

In this game we will focus on four foundations that will support you in your quest to express more of your creative potential:

1. Mindset – We will challenge the cultural myths around the idea of genius being rare and reserved for the blessed few and begin exploring ways to access the inner realm of genius available to all of us.
2. Environment – We will identify the elements that allow and support us in thinking bigger, expanding potential, creating collaborative partnerships and realizing more of our unique visions into manifested reality.
3. Tools – We will share tools and resources that are effective in helping us release those beliefs that hold us back and embrace those ideas and processes that lift us to loftier points of view, where the possibilities are greater in quality and number but are elusive when we are feeling disconnected.
4. Daily Practice – Together, we will design daily practices that give us access to states of awareness and flow that make tapping our own brilliance accessible, easy and natural.

The Vision

You are tuned in to your intuition, owning your power and creative genius and expressing the best of yourself in the world through your projects in business, writing, art, music, the sciences, healing arts or any life-enhancing endeavor you choose. Imagine what your life will be like owning your unlimited potential and realizing your personal best. You have a customized process for reaching innovative ideas and brilliant solutions that you can use as often as you like.

The Structure

Tap Your Inner Genius is a weekly game where players engage in a variety of exercises and related actions in the pursuit of specific results.

Each person has an online personal game card where they track their progress and share their insights with team mates.

The basic game is played over a period of 4 weeks with 4 game cards where you earn points.

A weekly one hour conference call is conducted by your coach to set the stage for the theme for the week and review of the previous game card.

Players will have the opportunity to comment and ask questions. All players are encouraged to stretch their thinking and performance in the game.

The Objectives

- Learn a 3-step process for getting in the flow – that zone of being in a peak state where ideas come easily and intuition is easily accessed.
- Design an environment that supports your highest and best thinking
- Expand your perception of self and what you are capable of. Multiply possibilities and use the game to think bigger about a specific project or challenge.
- Set up a personal daily practice that gives you access to your best thinking.

- Reach out to create a community of peers for collaboration and brainstorming.
