2) Share

The primary activity on the CV Game Platform is sharing!

Sharing is an act of generosity... sharing ideas, insights, experiences all contribute to the CV community. Share with the intention to inspire the other players!

This graphic shows you what a game card element looks like.

After you click on the Share Button, you will see a share box like this.

Type your thoughts into the box. You can use colors and font sizes to spice it up if you want to. Then click SAVE.

AFTER YOU CLICK SAVE

Look at the right side of your screen for messages. These pop up on a random basis whenever you share.

Look for a Bonus Play Item...

3) Comment

Read the shares of your fellow players and comment on them.

There are 2 big reasons to do this.

- 1) When you read the insights of others – and see other perspectives - you multiply your learning depth and speed.
- 2) When you comment the other player realizes that what they say matters... this builds an experience of belonging and vulnerability: essential for deep learning.

Comment There are two places where you can comment

1) The Game Board

The Game Board is where you go to see the most recent shares and comments by all players in the game.

The screenshot shows a web interface for a game board. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links: Community Home, My Game, Leader Board, Game Board, Highlights, and Teams. Below this is a filter bar with buttons for Everyone, My League, and My Team. The main content area is titled "Game Board - Coaching Super Powers Game". A red arrow points to the "Game Board" link in the navigation bar, with the annotation "1) Click on the Game Board". Below the title, there is a post by "Justina Hezghia" with a profile picture, a game card icon, and the text "04 CHAPTER 1: Here are my insights about the idea that ALL coaching is Life Coaching ...". A red arrow points to the text "ALL coaching is Life Coaching ...", with the annotation "2) This is what the player shared". To the right of the post, there is a comment icon, and a red arrow points to it with the annotation "3) Click to open comment box".

4) (YIM) You Inspire Me points

When someone really inspires you...

You can let them know by giving them a "You Inspire Me" point (YIM).

When you do this, they get a bonus point and YOU get a bonus point.

When you start a game you are given a "bank account" of YIM to give away.

As you play by sharing and commenting you can win more YIM to give away.

You give YIM the same two ways as commenting except you use the YIM icon.

1) On the Game Board

Game Board - Basic Coaching Super Powers 2017-05-24

I just Listened to coaching Session #5 with Player Maile. My takeaway is...

 Justine Cochrane game card 2017-06-16 10:07am
Critical Moments and Role Play

1) Read what the player shared

2) Click on YIM icon

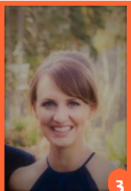

I think changing the usual time of this call led to a critical moment for Maile today. Usually they meet on Tuesday - but this week they moved it to Monday. This led to Maile talking about feeling reactive, which lead to a great conversation around play language and language patterns.

Power Pattern of "Completely Available" (as she is in her business game when she's in the studio) was discussed, Coach Dave asked how it would feel to bring that to all the games in Maile's life and the growth that is available there.

Note: if your YIM bank account is 0, then you will not see the YIM icon on the Game Board.

Step 3) Add to your YIM Bank Account

This part of the game is a bit like playing a slot machine... kind of fun.

Every time you share something or comment on another players' card, it is like pulling a slot machine lever... you have a random chance to win a few YIM.

So if you run out of YIM, start commenting and soon you will win more.

Watch the notes on the right side of the screen for the details.

7) Badges & Levels

Badges represent different areas of activity within the game.

Every element in the game has a badge associated with it.

As you play you earn points toward the badges. It's a fun way to track where you are putting your attention. And you get a fun message when you earn the next level for a badge. ;-)

As you play the games within the CoachVille community and school all of your points are accumulated. As you earn points you move up in levels of “esteem” within the CoachVille Membership. It’s all about tracking and rewarding active engagement and participation.

8) Highlights

Highlight: When you share something in the game you have the option to make it a Highlight Reel item by clicking on the Highlight Icon.

When you do this, what you shared will appear on the big CoachVille highlight board where it can be seen by all CV members.

When you make a highlight, you have the opportunity to win bonus points in the game or a score multiplier.

Your share appears on the BIG highlight Board that all CV Members can see.

Being complete is the access to freedom. As coaches, we must examine our emotional insecurities, ones that will tangle up with our players' should they mention something remotely triggering. Doing the inner work required to coach is necessary to avoid letting your desire to help proceed your ability to be whole.

10) 10 Big Reasons to Rock The Game Card Lifestyle

- 1) You are insanely busy. When you give of your time – time that you don't even have - to contribute to your community, you are a hero. Your community needs heroes. It is as simple and powerful as that.
- 2) Sharing consistently activates a part of your brain that accelerates learning from successes so you get better results much faster. You also avoid repeating mistakes; which is a good thing.
- 3) Sharing about your experiences in writing reveals powerful insights that would otherwise remain hidden. In other words, you CREATE and LEARN while you are writing. For example if you are facing a challenge and you type into your game card: "The perfection of this situation is..." FLASH! Insight.
- 4) Learning from others – by reading their game cards - accelerates your path to mastery because you amplify your own learning experiences.
- 5) Sharing your insights in a way that contributes value to others in the community boosts your experience of your own value; receiving external feedback from others creates a MEGA boost of belonging and self-worth (something we ALL need a lot more of!)
- 6) KNOWING that you are part of a learning community – rather than operating in isolation- boosts your overall feeling of goodwill. Feeling goodwill keeps you operating in the BIG part of your brain

Power Up 00: Game Changer Start Here

Play 2 Win Method : Start up game

where you are creative, while feeling alone keeps you in the smaller/ animal part of your brain where you are reactive. “Isolation is the dream killer” – Barbara Sher

7) Your Game Card is a place to go to remember what you have accomplished in the recent past. This is a significant self-worth boost; When your self-worth is high you take more positive risks which leads to faster learning and better results.

8) Accelerate your bounce back time! Having a place to go to be reminded of your own objectives and see a written recap of what you have learned and accomplished recently helps you bounce back from disappointment and course-correct very quickly as well. This minimizes or eliminates time lost due to feeling lost or down about what you are doing; which over time greatly accelerates your path to success.

9) Clear your mind for creativity! Sharing in writing about your game activities at some point every day has the tremendous effect of clearing your mind. This then releases bandwidth being used to “remember” to be used for creativity. AWESOME! It frees up your mind to start the new day with a new game.

10) Long term awesomeness! You can come back and review these game cards at any time in the future when you need a boost and to see how far you have traveled on the path to mastery.
