Play BIG for your Business

Hi there! Coach Dave here with you.

Excited to share the Business Ecosystem
Playshop Experience with YOU!

In this playshop you will use your imagination and conversation to create a thriving business ecosystem that is perfectly tuned to YOU and your Ideal Players. And here is the important part:
you will do it in the company of a few friends.

When you share your vision with fellow humans who want the best for you, you significantly improve your possibilities for fulfillment.

Transformational Business Coaching Program for Professional Coaches called BIG Freedom Membership. Whether you join us in the membership or not, this playshop will plant the seeds for future business.

BIG Freedom is BIG Fun!

Business Is Performance Art

Here is the breakthrough idea: Business is performance art. You may relate to a singer/song writer or a dancer/choreographer or a comedian or story teller.

Business is not work.

In work ... you look for answers. You look for some teacher to show you how to do it right. So you don't make any mistakes. Everyone else is a competitor.

In Performance Art... you look for collaborators to co-create with and a coach who can guide you to PLAY Better; You aim to develop YOUR WAY in the company of others. You need folks around you who will observe you deeply and then share with you what they see.

There are 3 core elements of performance art:

Creating your art

Performing your art

Cultivating your audience

This chart comparing the activities of Performance Art to those of Professional Coaching is to demonstrate their similarities AND share the focus area of the 2 BIG Freedom levels.
